1. Introduction (परिचय)

English: Welcome to this guide. Dealing with a bounced cheque can be stressful and confusing. You trusted someone, lent them money or provided a service, and the cheque they gave you was returned by the bank. What do you do next? The law provides a strict remedy under Section 138 of the Negotiable Instruments Act, 1881. But before you can file a court case, you must send a formal "Legal Notice" to the person who gave you the cheque. This e-book is designed to simplify the law and teach you exactly how to draft this notice.

2. What is a Cheque Bounce? (चेक बाउंस क्या है?)

English: A cheque bounce (or dishonour of a cheque) happens when you present a cheque to your bank for payment, but the bank returns it unpaid. This usually happens for reasons like:

- Funds Insufficient: The person doesn't have enough money in their account.
- Account Blocked/Closed: The account has been stopped or blocked by the account holder or the bank.
- Signature Mismatch: The signature on the cheque doesn't match the bank's records.

Hindi (हिंदी): चेक बाउंस (या चेक का अनादरण) तब होता है जब आप भुगतान के लिए अपने बैंक में चेक जमा करते हैं, लेकिन बैंक इसे बिना भुगतान किए वापस कर देता है। यह आमतौर पर इन कारणों से होता है:

- अपर्याप्त राशि (Funds Insufficient): व्यक्ति के खाते में पर्याप्त पैसा नहीं है।
- खाता ब्लॉक/बंद होना (Account Blocked/Closed): खाताधारक या बैंक द्वारा खाता रोक दिया गया है या ब्लॉक कर दिया गया है।
- हस्ताक्षर का मिलान न होना (Signature Mismatch): चेक पर हस्ताक्षर बैंक के रिकॉर्ड से मेल नहीं खाते हैं।

3. When and Why to Send a Legal Notice? (कानूनी नोटिस कब और क्यों भेजें?)

English:

You cannot just wake up and file a criminal case for a bounced cheque. The law requires you to give the defaulter one last chance to pay you back.

- The 30-Day Rule: You must send the legal notice within 30 days of receiving the "Return Memo" (the slip the bank gives you stating the cheque bounced).
- The 15-Day Warning: The notice must clearly tell the defaulter that they have 15 days from the receipt of the notice to pay the money. If they fail to pay within these 15 days, you can file a case in court.

Hindi (हिंदी):

आप चेक बाउंस होने पर सीधे आपराधिक मामला दर्ज नहीं कर सकते। कानून के अनुसार आपको उस व्यक्ति को पैसे चुकाने का एक आखिरी मौका देना होगा।

- 30-दिन का नियम: आपको बैंक से "रिटर्न मेमो" (वह पर्ची जो बैंक देता है जिसमें लिखा होता है कि चेक बाउंस हो गया है) प्राप्त होने के 30 दिनों के भीतर कानूनी नोटिस भेजना होगा।
- 15-दिन की चेतावनी: नोटिस में स्पष्ट रूप से डिफॉल्टर को बताना चाहिए कि उनके पास नोटिस प्राप्त होने के बाद पैसे चुकाने के लिए 15 दिन का समय है। यदि वे इन 15 दिनों के भीतर भुगतान करने में विफल रहते हैं, तो आप अदालत में मामला दायर कर सकते हैं।

4. The Anatomy of a Legal Notice: Where to Write What

(कानूनी नोटिस की संरचना: कहाँ क्या लिखें)

(Note: For this section, you can use a screenshot of the drafted notice below in your Word file, with arrows pointing to the different parts).

Let's break down the format step-by-step so anyone can understand it:

1. The Letterhead/Sender: At the very top, write the name, phone number, and office address of the Advocate sending the notice.
2. Date and Reference Number: Always include the exact date the notice is being printed and sent. This proves you sent it within the 30-day limit.
3. To (The Addressee): Here, write the full name and complete address of the person who issued the bounced cheque. If they have a business address and a home address, mention both to ensure delivery.
4. The Subject/Heading: Write a clear, bold heading stating that this is a Demand Notice under Section 138 of the N.I. Act. Mention the cheque number, date, and amount right here.
5. Opening Statement: State clearly that you are sending this notice on behalf of your client (the person who was supposed to receive the money).
6. The Background Story (Paragraphs 1 & 2): Briefly explain why the cheque was given. Was it a friendly loan? A business transaction? Mention the exact amount owed and the date it was given.

7. The Cheque Details (Paragraph 3): Mention exactly when the cheque was handed over, its number, the amount, the date written on it, and the bank it belongs to.
8. The Dishonour Event (Paragraph 4): This is crucial. State the date you deposited the cheque into your bank, and the date the bank returned it with the specific reason (e.g., "Funds Insufficient" or "Account Blocked").
9. The Demand (Paragraph 5 & 6): This is the ultimate purpose of the notice. You must demand the exact cheque amount to be paid within 15 days of receiving the notice. Warn them that failing to do so will result in a criminal case under Section 138 of the N.I. Act.
10. Signatures: The Advocate must sign at the bottom. Keep a copy for your records.
